

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Doug Pavel graduated from Tyndall High School in 1973, and attended the United States Air Force Academy that fall; and,

Whereas, Doug decided to change his path and transferred to South Dakota State University where he began his career in law enforcement at the University Police Department as a student officer until the fall of 1976; and

Whereas, Doug married Carol Euerle on November 20, 1976, and they moved to Yankton, South Dakota, where Doug worked in the patrol and detective sections of the Yankton Police Department until September 1979; and

Whereas, Doug and Carol and their son, Brian, moved to Rapid City, South Dakota, where they were later joined by their daughter, Katie; and,

Whereas, Doug began his career with the Rapid City Police Department on September 10, 1979, working as a patrol and traffic officer until being appointed as a school liaison officer in August 1984, was promoted to Detective in March 1, 1986, and later to Sergeant on October 1, 1993, serving in the Criminal Investigation Division as the supervisor of liaison officers; and,

Whereas, Doug was assigned to the patrol division on September 1, 1995, transferred to the Training Administrator position on May 1, 1997, with additional responsibilities as the Accreditation Manager, and on June 1, 1999, transferred back to the Traffic Section, and was promoted to Lieutenant on June 1, 2001; and,

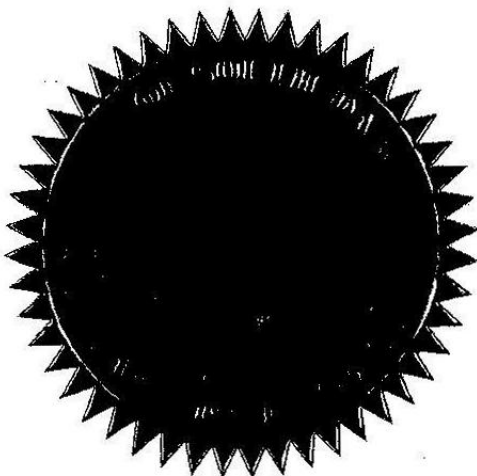

Whereas, Lieutenant Doug Pavel will retire from Field Services as a shift commander on April 30, 2003:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 30, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join his colleagues, friends and family as they recognize Doug for his commitment to a successful career in law enforcement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds
